

Today

Welcome! Welcome! Welcome! We are about to embark on a wonderful experience of worship where we will encounter the Spirit of the Living God.

Our scripture focus this morning is Ephesians 6:5-9. In giving direction to the slaves of his day, the Apostle Paul speaks directly to those who are employed as well as employers in our day. This is the wonderful timelessness of God's Word! Pastor David examines this text in his message, "Domestic Relationships in the Workplace".

Please let us know of your presence today by filling out a Communication Card which can be found in the foyer or through our smartphone app. You can also share prayer concerns through these two options.

Death. No one really enjoys thinking about their own passing. It is a reality of life that cannot be avoided. However, there are a number of things you can and should be doing to minimize the impact of those left behind.

1. Make sure you have a will and it is up to date! If you have minor children, make sure it indicates who you would like to have raise them in the event you and your spouse both perish unexpectedly.
2. It is necessary to have both a medical Power of Attorney and a durable Power of Attorney. Consult an attorney on this matter. LegalZoom is also a good, cheaper resource.
3. Have all your legal documents in one place. Consider purchasing a fire-proof safe for this purpose. There are small document size safes available. If you do not wish to have a safe, consider storing, at least copies, of these documents away from your home.
4. Discuss your legal matters with the one(s) you have designated as your executor or executrix in your will. A conversation now will save headaches and possible legal fees to sort it out.
5. Preplan your funeral service. There are funeral planning guides for you to use below the church mailboxes.
