

Today

Welcome. We are glad you are joining us for worship of an amazing God this weekend!

Being one church offering two services, there are times those services are distinctively different. This is one of those weekends.

Saturday Night Alive: Pastor David will continue to explore what Jesus means when He says, "Greater things than these you will do" by looking at the miracles Jesus performed as recorded in the Gospel of John. Tonight's miracles under examination are the restoration of the official's son and the healing of the invalid. The scripture text is John 4:46-5:11.

Youth Sunday: God has blessed SCMC with many children and youth. Today, we showcase and celebrate our youth. There will be highlights from Good News Club and Youth Group. We will honor our graduating high school seniors. In addition, many youth will use their talents in our worship service. It is always a privilege to celebrate our children and youth.

Please check in today by filling out a Communication Card which can be found in the foyer or through our smartphone app. You can also share prayer concerns through these two options.
