

Today

Welcome to our gathering of worship on this Father's Day Weekend.

Out of all the miracles Jesus did while He walked among us, John records only seven. These seven were hand-selected so that all people would believe Jesus is the promised Messiah, the Son of God. In addition to believing, those miracles were presented so that all believers would have life in the name of Jesus. These objectives of John are still valid for us in our current setting.

Pastor David continues the examination of John's recorded miracles by looking at the story of the man born blind in the message titled, "Now I See". This man's story is found in John 9:1-41.

Please check in today by filling out a Communication Card which can be found in the foyer or through our smartphone app. You can also share prayer concerns through these two options.
