

Today

WORLD COMMUNION SUNDAY

All over the world, Christian believers are meeting together today. Some are gathering in grand cathedrals, others are sitting under a shade tree. Some are listening to a great choir, others are singing in a unique dialect. Some have a freedom to worship openly, others secretly assemble.

All over the world, Christian believers are sharing Communion together today. Some are using a common cup and broken bread, others are using communion cups and wafers. Some are using wine, others are using grape juice. Some are being served, others are receiving.

All over the world, Christian believers are remembering the suffering and sacrifice our Lord Jesus Christ made for everyone. Through His body broken and His blood sealing the new covenant we are TOGETHER.

As we celebrate World Communion Sunday today, Pastor David will prepare us for sharing the elements of Communion, in the message, “Remembering the Lord”. The scripture text is 1 Corinthians 11:23-28.
